

Euan Cameron, Wind Prospect

Group Managing Director Euan Cameron founded Wind Prospect with Colin Palmer in 1997 and has overseen the growth and smooth running of the organisation since.

Euan is involved with all of the different business areas and is particularly focused upon building strong, sustainable relationships with our various partners, and representing the organisation to the outside world. He has a wealth of experience in dealing with planning authorities, government and various other stakeholders which he utilises to help guide overall strategy and individual projects.
